4	DVD: Venezuela Bolivariana 76-min. documentary by Venezuelan Marcelo Andrade	This film examines the Venezuelan Revolution in connection with the worldwide movement against capitalist globalisation. The main theme is how the Bolivarian Revolution, thanks to its incredible grassroots and networking power, transcends the national frontiers of Venezuela and develops alternatives to neoliberal capitalism. Covering the period from the 1989 "Caracazo" to the April 2002 coup against Chavez and beyond, this is a must-see film. English/Spanish (English subtitles).		Hands Off Venezuela
5	DVD: The Revolution Will Not Be Televised. 74-min. documentary by Kim Bartley and Donnacha O'Briain	In late 2001, the documentary film makers found themselves in the middle of the coup against President Chavez whilst filming his government. This film provides strong material to counter the prevailing media and US government opinions of the time. English/Spanish (English subtitles).		Hands Off Venezuela
